

MPI Foundation Academic Scholarships
Meeting and Event Management Master's Degree
San Diego State University: L. Robert Payne School of Hospitality & Tourism Management
Sponsored by Universal Orlando Meetings & Events

MPI members already enrolled in classes are eligible to apply for this scholarship. Scholarship applications will be accepted through an online application available at mpifoundation.org. Applications will be accepted August 10th – October 15th, 2019 with final award notifications made in December. At that time, the MPI Foundation will submit a $2,500 payment for each recipient's Spring 2020 tuition.

Additional details

- Scholarship funds will be paid from MPI Foundation directly to SDSU on behalf of students.
- Membership in MPI is required of scholarship recipients at time of application.
- Similar scholarship cycles will continue annually through 2021.
- Among several long-form responses, applications will require an essay discussing how you meet two of the following scholarship criteria: volunteerism; need; impact on self/community/industry; engagement.
- All applicants will be vetted to ensure they match criteria noted above, including appropriate enrollment and membership with MPI.
