

Anti-Human Trafficking Resources - Global

ECPAT	https://www.ecpat.org/	ECPAT is a worldwide network of organizations working to end the sexual exploitation of children. We work at all levels, supporting shelters for survivors, training and supporting law enforcement, influencing governments and conducting a wide range of research.
Free the Slaves	https://www.freetheslaves.net/	Free the Slaves is in the vanguard of the growing global movement to end one of history's greatest human rights abuses. We work locally, in some of the world's worst trafficking hot spots, to generate global change.
Operation Underground Railroad	https://ourrescue.org/	A community of people who travel to some of the world's the most dangerous places to rescue children from human trafficking.
Meeting Professionals Against Human Trafficking	http://www.mpaht.com/	A group of dedicated conference/event planners, hotel sales professionals and audio visual professionals who are raising awareness about human trafficking.
Shared Hope International	https://sharedhope.org/resources/	Amplifying our voice in the nation's capital to end sex trafficking.

Polaris Project	https://polarisproject.org	Founded in 2002, Polaris is named for the North Star, which people held in slavery in the United States used as a guide to navigate their way to freedom. Today we are filling in the roadmap for that journey and lighting the path ahead. Polaris also operates the US National Human Trafficking Hotline - 888-373-7888 or Text "BeFree" to 233733
Global Modern Slavery	https://www.globalmodernslavery.org/	A global directory for Anti-Human Trafficking organizations near you.
Freedom Collaborative	https://www.freedomcollaborative.org/	Freedom Collaborative is an online community platform that unites anti-human trafficking stakeholders from around the world. It provides a space to identify, meet, share and use tools and resources for improving and aiding the care of victims and the fight to end modern slavery and exploitation across civil society, private sector, and academia.