Mark your calendar for Thursday, September 10, 2015 to attend the annual awards gala, celebrating the accomplishments of the MPI-WI Chapter and its shining volunteers and members.

Break out your bling and be ready for an amazing evening! Join your fellow chapter members for an afternoon of education, then get decked out in your Denim & Diamonds to enjoy the silent auction, a fabulous dinner and awards program. Stick around after dinner for a fun evening of networking, patio games and music. We will continue the celebration with a mix of outdoor and indoor party games, including Cornhole, Ladderball, Beer Pong and Flippy Cup to name a few. Brush up on your Solo cup games!

Don't miss your chance to buy a Diamond Ticket for $25. One Diamond Ticket will be drawn and that winner can select any one item from the Live Auction table without having to bid! Limited numbers of these tickets available.

Everyone Communicates, Few ConnectEducation Speaker - Jill Anderson

In Everyone Communicates, Few Connect, Jill Anderson will show participants how to get their message across by building a bridge to others. She will point out that cultivating relationships is every bit as important to effective communication as crafting the message. The insightful principles she shares are critical to understand if you desire to forge a lasting bond with those around you. Whether applied in private conversations or public speeches, Jill's connecting practices will give you the edge as a leader.

Jill will share the Five Principles and Five Practices to develop the crucial skill of connecting, including:

- Finding Common Ground
- Keeping Your Communication Simple
- Capturing People's Interest
- Inspiring People
- Staying Authentic in all Your Relationships

The ability to connect with others is a major determining factor in reaching your full potential. It's no secret! Connecting is a skill you can learn and apply in your personal, professional, and family relationships.
