

EMPI Award: Outstanding Supplier Member

This award recognizes the contributions of an active supplier member who consistently provides innovative services and/or products to support the meetings and events industry. This member inspires others, creates new initiatives, or acts as a catalyst for positive results. Nominees will be considered for professional experience, involvement in MPI (local or international), industry service, and civic activities.

This award may be self-nominated or nominated by peers.

Criteria

Self-nominations are required to be validated by one (1) letter of recommendation by an individual or organization (the author does not need to be a MPI member). The letter should address the nominee's influence, innovation and transferability.

Influence	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Describe how the individual has influenced and advanced the strategy of the organization.• Describe how the individual has contributed to the chapter.• How does the individual display leadership in the initiatives listed above?
Innovation	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Describe the contributions displayed by the supplier that have been innovative over the past year.• How did the innovations impact the chapter and/or chapter members?• What are the outstanding characteristics of this supplier?
Transferability	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Describe the impact this individual has had on our chapter and the community.

Eligibility

- Nominee must be an individual (not organization) supplier member of MPI in good standing.
- Nominee must have been a member of the MPI Minnesota Chapter for three (3) years or more.
- Nominee may not be a member of the judging panel.

Updated November 2, 2018