

Alumni Testimonials

“A single piece of advice I have for anyone thinking of joining our community, is to get involved. Volunteer, attend the events, connect with the members. From there, the opportunities will continue to roll in”

Lynn Miedzik, Sales Coordinator at Chop Steakhouse & Bar
Alumni of Durham College

“Volunteering with MPI has been extremely rewarding and beneficial to expanding my network while learning more about our evolving industry has to offer. It has created many opportunities to enhance my qualifications, work on new projects and meet leading industry professionals!”

Zaman Ishaad, Conference Coordinator at Academic Internship Council
Alumni of Ryerson University

“Initially being the timid student, I was concerned about my ability to connect with the industry, one thing I had in common with them was my passion for the industry and our willingness to succeed. MPI Toronto has been an amazing opportunity for my professional and personal growth!”

Emilia Kim, Sales Coordinator at Metro Toronto Convention Centre
Alumni of Ryerson University

“Attending MPI events has enabled me to network with experienced professionals who have endless suppliers across the industry.”

Lindsay West, Events Coordinator at Community Trust
Alumni of George Brown College

MPI Toronto Student Engagement Task Force

“Within minutes of stepping foot into my first event, I’ve come to realize the warm and welcoming community MPI has built for its members. I met professionals from varying capacities each with a plethora of knowledge that I could really benefit mentoring opportunities from and individuals like myself new to MPI and attending their first event”

Ainee Tabernilla, Events & Catering Coordinator at Entertainment Student at George Brown College

“I strongly encourage those who are curious about volunteering to attend any of the many events MPI hosts each year. They are a support network that will forever have your back, and will challenge you to excel in any aspect you choose.”

Stephanie Comely, Conference Centre Assistant at Manulife Bank of Canada Alumni of Conestoga College and the University of Guelph

“MPI Toronto is an environment that is inclusive and welcoming for everyone and I truly encourage people not only to become members but to volunteer. Volunteering is the most rewarding experience within this organization and the best way to truly make the most out of your membership.”

Jessica Toro, Conference Services & Events Coordinator at Women's College Hospital Alumni of Humber College
