

RAINDROPS ON ROSES EDUCATION BURSARY

Raindrops on Roses, is a social community, launched by Debbie van der Beek, president + publisher of both Ignite and Adrenalin magazine in November 2020. It was created for both fun and purpose. For fun, as a platform for individuals to connect, share, and support each other in a safe judgment-free environment. And for purpose, to provide complimentary education and skill development for individuals within the meeting and event industry.

This bursary is available to MPI Toronto Chapter members who have lost their job or are dealing with reduced work hours/income due to the global pandemic. If you would like to apply for a bursary to cover the cost of an educational session with the Toronto Chapter, please complete this form and return to lwright@mpitoronto.org.

I understand that to apply for this bursary, I must be unemployed or on reduced work hours due to the global pandemic.

Name: _____ Email Address: _____

Event I am applying the bursary to if awarded: _____

Company I worked for or am working on reduced hours: _____

Date: _____ Signature: _____

Return the completed form to lwright@mpitoronto.org.