

EXPERIENCE WEC VIRTUALLY.

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

LOG IN TO THE WEC VIRTUAL EXPERIENCE AT: MPI.ORG/WECVIRTUAL

Log in using the same first name, last name and email address you registered for the WEC Virtual Experience with. Your email address will be matched against our registrant database and verified using a code that will be texted and/or emailed to you.

Once logged in, you can browse to the "All Sessions" area to see the sessions available for streaming for WEC Virtual. Make sure the sessions you want to see are added to your schedule.

10 minutes prior to the scheduled start of the session, the session page will update with a "Join Session" button*. You can click that button to join the live-stream of that session. There you will also find a session chat where you can interact with other WEC Virtual audience members and the WEC Virtual hosts.

*IMPORTANT NOTE: Each session will have it's own individual live stream. You will NOT be able to open a single live stream for all sessions, so make sure you have added the sessions you want to see to your schedule.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

HOW MANY CLOCK HOURS?

WEC Virtual has been approved for 12 eligible clock hours. Clock hours will be submitted to the EIC and uploaded to accounts after the conference—but will only appear if the email addresses match. If they don't, you can self-report clock hours to the EIC using your registration email as proof of attendance.

IS THIS BEING RECORDED?

An on-demand recording of all the virtual sessions will be added to the MPI Academy website in the coming weeks. You can find it at: academy.mpi.org.

Log in and click "My Account" and then "My Sessions" and they will be available to you there for on-demand viewing.
